The London Clinic

The London Clinic opened in 1932 by a group of Harley Street doctors. Today, the London Clinic is recognised as one of the UK's leading independent hospitals. The Hospital is fully equipped acute care hospital. The long-standing national and international reputation for the provision of clinical excellence is well earned. The London Clinic has a commitment to investing in progressive technology for better care and extensive staff training. The expertise of their vetted consultants, attracts patients from around the globe who opt to access the very best that private healthcare.

Forbes Hotel TV installed over 136, 20 inch Toshiba LCD TV's. The televisions were predominately fitted in each of the private rooms on normal table top stands. The television remotes provided hotel functions that people would expect from such a impression and high class clinic.
